POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Frontier will publish all relevant information related to its qualifications and short courses to enable learners to make informed decisions about undertaking training with Frontier.
2. Frontier will conduct a Pre-Training review and a Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) test to ensure that Frontier acquires sufficient information of the prospective learner to provide current and accurate Pre Training Plan and advice about the appropriate training product to meet the learner's needs, taking into account the individual's existing skills and competency prior to enrolment confirmation.
3. Frontier's tuition, service and refund fees associated with all qualifications and short courses are in accordance with the Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure.
4. Frontier will record all student's information and documents acknowledged during the pre-enrolment and enrolment stage for a period of 1 year.

PROCEDURES

The following procedures set out the process, tools and staff responsible to execute the policy statements detailed above.

POLICY STATEMENT 1: Frontier will publish all relevant information related to its qualifications and short courses to enable learners to make informed decisions about undertaking training with Frontier.

Frontier will ensure that the following information listed is published on Frontier's website, brochures (international students only), course information booklets and other domains and publications, whichever is applicable at the current period:

List of information for potential learners to make informed decisions about the course they are willing to enrol:

- the code, title and currency of the training product to which the learner is to be enrolled, as published on the national register.
- the training and assessment, and related educational and support services Frontier will provide to the learner including the:
 - course estimated duration;
 - expected locations at which it will be provided;
 - expected modes of delivery.
- name and contact details of any third party that will provide training and/or assessment, and related educational and support services to the learner on Frontier's behalf.
- any work placement arrangements.
- the RTO's obligations to the learner, including that the RTO is responsible for the quality of the training and assessment in compliance with the Standards for RTOs, and for the issuance of the AQF [Australian Qualifications Framework] certification documentation.
- the learner's rights, including:
 - details of the RTO's complaints and appeals process required by Standard 6;
 - if the RTO, or a third-party delivering training and assessment on its behalf, closes or ceases to deliver any part of the training product that the learner is enrolled in.
- the learner's obligations:
 - in relation to the repayment of any debt to be incurred under the VET [Vocational Education and Training] arising from the provision of services;
 - any requirements the RTO requires the learner to meet to enter and successfully complete their chosen training product;
 - any materials and equipment that the learner must provide;
 - information on the implications for the learner of government training entitlements and subsidy arrangements in relation to the delivery of the services.

Even though all the above information is provided on the website and brochures, Frontier ensures to provide the above information in the course information booklet which is attached to the enrolment form, so that potential learners can read and understand the information related to the qualification or short course that they are willing to enrol. Upon finishing reading it, learners must sign a declaration that they have understood all information provided in the course information booklet specific to the course they are enrolling and proceed with the enrolment form.

Learners that are being referred by third party providers are requested to complete an additional checklist where they are provided with the course relevant information and the nature of the third-party relation prior to enrolment. Learners will also have to confirm that they prefer to be served by the third-party provider and are satisfied with the information provided by the third-party provider.

This part of the enrolment procedure must be read in conjunction with the Marketing Policy and Procedure.

Policy Statement 2: Frontier will conduct a Pre-Training review and a Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) test to ensure that Frontier acquires sufficient information of the prospective learner to provide current and accurate advice about the appropriate training product to meet the learner's needs, taking into account the individual's existing skills and competency prior to enrolment confirmation.

The following standard procedure is followed by Frontier during the pre-enrolment stage for Fee for Service students interested in VET and accredited courses:

If the student is interested in the short courses provided by Frontier the following pre-enrolment stage applies:

Note: Student should provide 100 points ID proving their identification and residency status.*

Once the application form is received prior to confirming and formalising the learner's enrolment, the following procedure is to be followed:

Once the enrolment and LLN document is submitted by the student, Frontier will follow the procedure described below for VET and accredited course enrolments:

Enrol in additional course

Learners currently enrolled with Frontier who wishes to enrol in an additional course with Frontier prior to completing 6 months of their initial course are not required to submit an enrolment form again, except where mentioned. If the learner completed six months of study, Frontier's pre-enrolment and enrolment policy applies.

LLN Test

Frontier conducts the LLN test to determine the learner's current core skill levels. It helps in identifying the gaps between their ability and the performance levels required. Frontier is obliged to provide support to the learners who struggle with their core skills. To complete the course successfully the learner should demonstrate performance at the appropriate level of the course.

Learners who have previously completed a course with Frontier do not have to reappear for an LLN test if they wish to enrol in a new course similar to the level completed previously. However, if they enrol in an upper level course, the learner must attempt the LLN test considering the core skills requirements vary.

Current learners who wish to enrol in a second course of the same level with Frontier are not required to give another LLN test. However, if the course of a higher AQF level is selected by the learner, an LLN test must be submitted.

Please read the Frontier's student support policy and procedure in conjunction with this part of the procedure.

Policy Statement 3: Frontier's tuition, service and refund fees associated with all qualifications and short courses are in accordance with the Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure.

Frontier has a standard detailed fees and refund policy that provides guidelines on the nature of nature of refunds that Frontier accepts, procedures for refund and on how to publish fees and refund procedures in the information collaterals. This part of the procedure must be read in conjunction with the Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure.

Policy Statement 4: Frontier will record all student's information and documents acknowledged during the pre-enrolment and enrolment stage for a period of 1 year.

Frontier has strict detailed guidelines for the administration team to implement in order to ensure that all the pre-enrolment and enrolment procedures are completed and conducted efficiently and smoothly.

Learners are able to enrol with Frontier in two different ways:

1. By directly filling out the enrolment form through the website, which is embedded in the Cloud Assess Portal (Frontier's learning and assessment platform)
2. By manually filling out the enrolment form and submitting via email or face to face at 735 Pascoe Vale Road, Glenroy, VIC, 3046.

The administration team follows different procedures depending on the way the learner submits the enrolment form. Please find below a detailed explanation:

1. Record keeping procedure for enrolment forms submitted via Cloud Assess:
As mentioned in Policy Statement 2, Frontier will follow the following procedures during the enrolment process:
 - Include the student's name in the project management tool.
 - Create a profile for the student in Project management platform
 - Create a Google Drive folder or upload them to the project management tool to store any documents and add the link to the student's profile in project management platform.
 - Verify or add the student's information to Frontier's management system.

All the electronic records of students who enrol via Cloud Assess will be retained in the Learning Management System for 1 year from the date the student completed, cancelled or withdrawn from the course.

Electronic records will be permanently deleted from the learning management system after the retention period by the compliance department.

2. Record keeping procedure for enrolment submitted via email or in person:

As mentioned in Policy Statement 2, Frontier will follow the following procedures during the enrolment process:

- Include the student's name in the project management tool.
- Create a profile for the student in Project Management Platform
- Create a Google Drive folder to store any documents and add the link to the student's profile in project management platform.
- Verify or add the student's information to Frontier's management system.

If the enrolment form was submitted in person, the administrative officer will scan all the documents before following the procedures mentioned above. All the documents collected manually or via email will be backed up in an external drive for safety.

Printed copies will be archived in the record room once the student completed, cancelled or withdrawn from the course.

Frontier will retain the documents and forms submitted during the enrolment process for a period of 1 year from the date the student completed, cancelled or withdrawn from the course.

The manner of disposal after the retention period will be the responsibility of the compliance department. To ensure confidentiality, documents containing personal details or other sensitive information will be destroyed before disposal.

Please refer to Frontier’s Record Keeping Policy for more details.
